Re. Baba Stories book project – A reminder

Dear Friends,

Last year I sent out a letter regarding a book project. I had envisioned a book consisting of Baba Muktananda stories, anecdotes and experiences written by his devotees. Many of you wrote back saying you loved the idea and wanted to participate. To those of you who have sent in your stories, I thank you for sharing your wonderful experiences. To those who have not yet sent theirs in, this is a gentle reminder. To those of you who are still undecided, I urge you to participate.

I believe this can be a wonderful book which will not only inspire readers, but will also remind devotees what a great Guru our Baba was. During his talk at a Christmas celebration in Miami, FL in 1979, Baba said:

“Just as the life force is necessary for life, in the same way saints are essential. All these beings taught: ‘Love your inner Self, God is right within.’ We should keep their teaching alive, because only if we keep their teaching alive, do we keep these saints alive.”

Therefore dear guru brothers and sisters, let us keep our beloved Baba alive by remembering his teachings, and sharing our experiences with him.

If you choose to participate please:

- Include written permission to publish your story
- Be sure to include the approximate dates and location of your story's setting
- Feel free to include any non-copyrighted photos that you would like to share

Edits may be necessary for grammar and length.

I hope you will participate and share this letter with anyone who may be interested.

With great respect and love,
Swami Prakashananda
